

Questions for thought:

- What does the passage say about God?
- What does this passage say about human beings?
- What does this passage say about creation, the environment?
- What does this passage say about the relationship between creation, God, and humanity and how they connect at the "table?"

Monday June 19th

1 Corinthians 9:4. Paul is responding to similar complaints made of priests who just take the best portion and do not work. He is making the argument that the apostles constantly working and cannot really provide for themselves (although he often did by making tents). Do you think he makes the point that people of faith are allowed to have fun too?

Tuesday June 20th

1 Corinthians 8:1-13. How does the attitude of a Christian when they are living out their praxis (practices) reveal Christ? How can we prevent others from listening to us by how we engage their thoughts and actions?

Wednesday June 21st

Leviticus 7:23. Adkins should have read Leviticus when the original diet came out. God is providing guidance for health and wellness.

Thursday June 22nd

Proverbs 10:5. Our work is for the sake of others. Here the good "son" works for the sake of his family. Who should we be working for? In food prep and gathering as well as hospitality?

Friday June 23rd

Genesis 3:6. The act of disobedience was made on the visual appearance of the fruit. It looked good, didn't look bad, so she chose to partake. What other things in life appear good but are harmful to us?

Saturday June 24th

John 6:35. What does spiritual hunger look like? What might coming to Jesus do for that kind of hunger? Why does Jesus talk about not being hungry or thirsty in coming to him?

Look at the prayer list. Who can you pray for? Who needs a little extra help in an area where you can make a difference?
